PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Recognised expert in Learning and Capability Building with 10+ years of experience architecting and delivering transformational training programs across Leadership Development, Sales Enablement, HR Capability Building, IT/Tech Onboarding, Marketing Effectiveness, and Behavioural Soft Skills — for organisations across Amusement and Entertainment, Real Estate, Retail, and BPO/Customer Service. Cited as a thought leader through invitations as Chief Guest Speaker at the Women's Career Readiness Programme (Skillemme x Bishop Cotton Women's Christian College) and Panel Speaker at The Capability Forum by Skillemme, where industry leaders convene to discuss AI Tools and Team Productivity. Backed by 25+ certifications spanning Generative AI for Leaders (Vanderbilt University), Learning and Development (HRCI), Lean Six Sigma Green Belt, Project Management, and specialist sales and marketing training from HubSpot Academy — a rare, multi-disciplinary credential portfolio few trainers in India can match. A four-time Best Trainer awardee (NoBroker, 2021–2025) and recipient of the Best Blended Learning Strategy Award (Wonderla, 2026), with a proven, repeatable methodology for diagnosing capability gaps and building sustained, outcome-driven learning interventions — not one-off events. Designer and lead facilitator of the HR Catalyst Training Program and multiple high-conversion Sales Training cohorts, with deep fluency in AI-powered learning design, gamification, and blended delivery. Brings the rigour of process excellence and the credibility of globally recognised certifications to every engagement — corporate boardroom, sales floor, or classroom.

Why organisations and institutions choose me: I don't deliver generic training — I diagnose, design, and deliver measurable capability change. With direct operational experience across four industries and recognised thought leadership in AI and team productivity, I bring boardroom-tested expertise into every room I facilitate. My programs are built on adult learning theory, made memorable through gamification, and rigorously measured against outcomes — whether the audience is a sales floor, an HR function, a tech team, or a classroom of students preparing for their first job.
